Description

Cascades: 20 Poems for 20 Years

Okey enjoys writing—whether it is creative writing, research and analytical, or just for fun. Writing is his best friend and ally at work, at play, and for reflection. He has a distinctive flowing style. Okey was born in Onitsha, Nigeria in March 1981. He is also a lawyer, an entrepreneur and a diplomat. He loves to capture beautiful moments of joy and wonder through poetry and travel photography.

Cascades is an attempt to capture some of his flowing feelings expressed in writing. The collection of 20 poems for 20 years covers two decades of expressing emotions in writing from his university days, through his work travels to many parts of Africa, Europe and America, to his current abode in Abuja. It embraces a rainbow of emotions like joy, love, hope, beauty, wonder, faith and soul searching. The collection is divided into four parts. It is dedicated to Spring, the time of his birth.
